

Allowing changes to current regulations will open the door to bad behavior on the part of "providers."

Maintaining Title II protects users who otherwise could find themselves at the mercy of providers who seek to create even greater profits.

Enough.

The current anti-regulation disinformation should be revealed for what it is: yet another way for fat-cat corporations to screw a few more $$ out of the public.

This is NOT making America great again.

D M Battistone

Citizen

3531 Laurel Leaf Ln

Fairfax VA 22031